

Contract Agreement

This agreement is made between the client and the worker for the project. The worker agrees to complete the project according to the specifications and timeline provided. The client agrees to pay the agreed amount upon completion. Both parties agree to maintain professional communication throughout the project duration.